

Max Baum Attempts to Wipe Out the Entire Family After a Long Quarrel---One Bullet Hits His Son.

Max Baum, a well-to-do man of fifty-eight years, living with his His Former Butler Held in wife and son at No. 72 East One Hundred and Twenty-third street, as a result of a long quarrel with his wife, fired three shots in her body at 4.30 o'clock this afternoon, mortally wounding her. Then he turned the revolver on himself, blowing off the top of his head.

The wife, who had staggered down this afternoon he the one flight of stairs, fell into the was going to kill his wife and son and arms of Detective Edward Thompson, who was standing in front of No. 70. He reached for a revolver Turning her over to a bystander, the on the detective dashed up the stairs after is twenty-six Baum, but got there just in time to him and made a desperate effort to get morning the quarrel was renewed and had fired the shots and sent a

ELEVATOR CAUGHT AND CRUSHED BOY, THEN REBOUNDED

Nobody Knows Him or How He Got only servant who knew where key and safe were located, so he suspected him. in the Shaft-A Shocking Sight to Observers---Crowd Gathers.

In the most peculiar and mysterious elevator accident with which which Mr. Brooker said he had given the Coroner's office of this county has ever had to deal a boy met his to his wife for a wedding present. death this afternoon in the fourteen-story Mackay-Bennet Cable Build
Then came a diamond horseshoe worth

The mackay concerns the concerns ing at No. 20 Broad street. He was crushed between an elevator in one a birthday reminder. Then followed a number of stickpins and Broadway. In the assets of the firm is a big block of Western ice stock Ti of the shafts and an upright framework which confines the counterweight, other pieces of varying value until the

The man was not killed in leaving or entering an elevator. No one Magistrate bade the detection of the man was not killed in leaving or entering an elevator. No one Mr. Brooker had identified each pieces knows how he got into the shaft. He was not a workman in the build- as it was produced and told its history ing, nor was he employed by any elevator or electric company having and value.

anything to do with the elevators.

There are eight elevators in the buildfrom Broad street through to New lance standing at the door of the build, land given the instruments to him, but the troubles of E. R. Thomas. The from Broad street through to New street. The elevators are numbered scutively from the Broad street side. Elevator No. 2, crowded with passengers from the upper floors, descending at express speed, when, at and delicate operation. A false move the seventh floor . el, it struck a soft would have precipitated it down the eledescending at express speed, when, at obstruction with such force that its mo- , vator shaft to the cellar. The workmen mentum was stoped and it bounded first constructed a platform of timbers back up the shaft at least three feet. in the shaft at the seventh floor level Could See Body Wedged In.

The conductor did not lose control and their endeavors with ropes. immediately shut off the mechanism. The body was many the elevator shaft. In one of the pock-He ran the car back to the eighth floor, where the passengers got off. D. n n ets was found a memorandum book in the shaft at the next floor level they could see the body of a boy wedged into the upright suports for the counter the face was turned so that those who arenue, between One Hundred and looked down through the shaft gazed Thirty-fifth street and One Hundred

Part of the boy's clothing, including half of his coat and waistcoat, dangled from the bottom of the elevator that had struck and crushed him.

Half the Elevators Shut Down. The accident made necessary the shutting down of the easterly half of the battery of eight elevators, and the corridor on the lower floor was soon jammed with excited men and boys. As ! the news of the accident spread the ance, standing at the door of the build- had given the instruments to him, but ng while the work of removing the the youth, who was in court, denied body was in progress, served to increase this through, Mr. Brooker.

the excitement. Getting the body out was a harrowing and set about securing the obect of The body was finally removed from which was written in a boyish hand: "I am Harry Coon, and I live at St. Ann's avenue and One Hundred and Sixty-first street. In case of accident The body hung head downward and inform Mr or Mrs. Marks, St. Ann's and Thirty-sixth streets."

CHOKED BY PIECE OF MEAT. to-day for permission to serve papers

"Circulation Books Open to All."

Partly cloudy and colder to-night; Tuesday Tals

PRICE ONE CENT.

THAW INSANE FROM BIRTH, IS DEFENSE'S OPENING PLEA

MONDAY, JANUARY 13, 1908.

FALLING WALL KILLS A WORKMAN. HURTS FOUR OTHERS, ONE FATALLY

BROOKER GETS BACK HALF OF STOLEN JEWELS

$5,000 for Ansonia Robbery of $25,000.

ing stolen property into the State."

of Riva, his wife, Earlea, and brother, prother were discharged by Magistrate from abroad he found his bureau drawer upset and a number of stickpins gone The jewel safe, which was concealed, and the key of which was hidden, had Private detectives and the police had located Riva, followed him, and finally Detectives Wilbur and Gegan, of the Central Office, searched the Riva rooms and found an alligator bag, under a cravenette coat, that held a chamois bag in which were the jewels. There were in the bag forty pieces. He reached into the bag and pulled out a

In the Riva rooms at the time of the arrest were found a mandolin and policeman sent an ambulance call to the guitar from the Brooker home. Riva

WHITE CLOUD, INDIAN GALLANT, IN DIVORCE

Won Affections of a Mrs. Green, of London, and Now Made Co-respondent in Suit.

autopsy by Coroner's Physician by means of publication on White Cloud. Mary Elizabeth Chaffee, a nicce of the It Lehane upon the body of John S. Brooks, fifty-six years old, of No. 170 West Tenth street, at the Morgue today, disclosed that death had resolved from a piece of meat which stuck in Brooks's trachea yesterday while he was during in a restaurant at No. 1598 Third avenue. He was found dead in the washroom of the place.

by means of publication on White Cloud, a North American Indian, who is cited a North American Indian, who is cited a North American Indian, who is cited the of Bishop Porter. They have a beautiful home at No. 329 West Eighty-ninth street.

White Cloud was a member of the Wild West Show, and while playing in this city he captivated the affections of Mrs. Green and induced her to leave her husband, who is now suing for distribution of the firm are Robert Maclay. Alfred Barmore Maclay, his brother, and Harold Weeks, the former the news of the accident spread the crowd gained in numbers until it expected in the pacific Coast use Stransky Ware. Over tended into Broad and New streets. A 15,000 pieces bought by the U. S. Gov. ... White Cloud subsequently returned to America, and the advertisement will be board member, published in New York. The Assonia published in New York.

They Were Shoring Up the Ruins of the Madison Avenue Car Barns When the Pile Came Down Upon Them.

One man was killed and four were badly hurt, one mortally, by the collapse of a wall to-day at Eighty-sixth street and Madison avenue.

The men were engaged with thirty others in shoring up a fireweakened wall of the Madison avenue car barns, when a gaunt threestory wall, weakened by operations on another portion of the structure. toppled and fell with a crash.

ROBT. MACLAY & CO., BROKERS, SUSPEND. OWING $1,500,000

been rifled. The former butler was the only servant who knew where key and Stock of Western Ice Company, an E. R. Thomas Concern, Among Assets-May Resume if the Creditors Extend Aid.

> Robert Maclay & Co., bankers and brokers at No. 71 Broadway, with a branch in the Ansonia Hotel, failed for $1,500,000 to-day.

> The Maclay concern is a Stock Exchange house, which has had -a Thomas security.

> The head of the firm is Robert Maclay, known in society as "Bobby." He is a son of the late Robert Maclay, who founded the Knicker-were made while E. R. Thomas was charge with inquiries. president of the Hamilton Bank.

and twenty freight cars, with incidental E. R. Thomas and O. F. Thomas bought control of this road two years ago and E. R. Thomas was elected The law firm of Stickney, Maclay & president. The Provident Savings Life McBurney is counsel for Robert Maclay owns $36,600 worth of the bonds of the & Co. Mr. McBurney made the follow-LONDON, Jan. 13 -- An unusual appli- road, which were purchased at 75. The ing statement regarding the failure: cation was made in the divorce court Insurance Department has since placed the value of these bonds at 40. "Bobby" Maclay married, in bocker Trust Company, and was the first president of that institution. It is reported in the financial district with wealthy women on the upper West Maclay firm is indebted to the Hamilton Bank in the sum of $100,000 on two failure reached the hotel this afternoon. notes for $50,000 each. These notes are A swarm of women customers hysterisecured by collateral valued by the re-ceiver of the bank at $88,550. The loans whelmed the lone stenographer in

It was stated at the Ansonia that Maclay & Co. are mixed up in Provi-dent Savings Life deal, through their brokerage business about three years Thomas connection. They are the fiscal ago with the backing of E. R. Thomas, agents of the Brockville, Westport & who was living at the hotel at that Northwestern Railroad, a little Canadian line, which owns a right of way, four locomotives, five passenger cars, two baggage, mail and express cars "Bobby" Maclay.

Can Resume If Given a Chance.

"The firm has not made an assignment and no assignee will be named if the members of the firm can prevent "If I said $100,000," replied Mr. Mc-nability to meet obligations due without the sacrifice of a great deal of collateral was Thomas, Maclay & Co. Mr. Mc Maclay, Alfred Barmore Maclay, his quantities of assets which depreciated the firm at that time was not E. R.

LONG SHOTS IN FRONT TWICE AT FAIR GROUNDS

Polar Star Smothers His Field in the Second at 15 to 1.

date that had weight up, while Padre, ready, were under conditions that Few were scratched. The two-year-old peen colored, so that the handicappers Pinion, 110 (Lloyd), 5 to 1 and 2 to 1 olans and pseudo-physicians to state, and 6 to 5, 2; Cunning, 110 (n. Alex), but for the Legislature to state, to 1 and 2 to 1 and 6 to 5, 3. Time, 0.36 4-5. Bessie, Gloriole, Cerina, Messo- "The definition of insanity is so eluoprano. My Lady Francis, Smart, Miss sive that it evades even those that have Hapsburg, Molly Stark, Miss Snack studied and those who will continue to forward light on the acts of this deand After All also ran.

SECOND RACE—Purse $400; maiden is for us to give it the best judgment is for us to give it the best judgment of our minds, weighing acts and words star, 119 (Brussell), 15 to 1 and 6 to 1 and 3 to 1, 1 by four lengths; Bulkbead, 109 (W. Glass), 75 to 1 and 30 to 1 those acts and deeds mark the working and 12 to 1, 2; Buckling Boy, 109 (V. Powers), 3 to 1 and 6 to 5 and 3 to 5, 3. Time, 1.19 1-5, Harrington, George H. "The Court of Appeals is as incaptive for the end of the express purpose of showing you that on the night of June 25, 1906, this man was legally insane, morally and mentally irresponsible for what he did.

Comes to "Unwritten Law." "Science has governed all and the court of Appeals is as incaptive for the end of the express purpose of showing you that on the night of June 25, 1906, this man was legally insane. Time, 1.19 1-5. Harrington, George H. White, Major Mack, Amotillado, Moxey Mead, Epitome, Cannon, Caucus Pink, Cap Waxnaw and Danridge and Page THIRD RACE-Purse $400; four-year-THIRD RACE—Purse $400; four-year-olds and up; selling; seven furiongs.—Hancock, 105 (J. McCahoy), 10 to 1, 4 to 1 and 2 to 1, won by half a length; Crafty, 110 (V. Powers), 13 to 5, 6 to 5 and 3 to 10, second; Rappahannook, 108 (J. Lee), 16 to 5, 7 to 5 and 3 to 10, third. Time—1.32 4-5. Creel, J. D. Dunn, Denigre, Prytania, Abe Meyer, Dapple Gold, Young Stevens, Abingdon, Heart of Hyacinth, Monere and St. Noel also ran. Hyacinth, Monere and St. Noel also ran.

FOURTH RACE—Purse 600; threeyear-olds and up; six furlongs.—Pedro, 95 (A. Morgan), 2 to 1 and 3 to 5 and out, won by a head; Tileing, 109 (J.
Sumter), 11 to 10, 2 to 5 and out, second;
Platoon 93 (Kennedy), 8 to 1, 5 to 2 and 4 to 5 third. Time, 1.15. Pasdena,
King's Plate, Fintrall and Chief Hayes also ran.

RELEASE ON BAIL DENIED TO EX-MAYOR SCHMITZ.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 13 .- Superior Judge Frank H. Dunne to-day refused to admit to ball former Mayor Eugene Schmitz, whose conviction upon the Wednesday by the Appellate Court, day a portion of the proposed amend- that there was invanity in the family, which declared that he was illegally ment to the constitution of the Associa- Nowadays we must learn these things.

same position that several banks occupied late last fall. They have sufficient in assets to satisfy their obligations, but n the present state of the market are inable to realize on them."

"How much money was involved in

They believe that they can work Burney, smilingly, "I might be a long their way out if their creditors will give way off the track and I might be as them a chance.

"The direct cause of the failure was of fact, I am unable to state." far wrong if I said $5,000. As a matter Up to a year ago the name of the firm

Chief Counsel Littleton Tells Jury He Will Show White's Slayer Was Irresponsible Previous to the Final Act.

WITNESSES CALLED TO PROVE LIFE'S RECORD

White's Brother-in-Law, Chief Reliance of State, Tells of Acts of Architect's Slaver on Roof Garden Immediately Before Shooting.

Harry K. Thaw's defense on his second trial for the murder of Stanford White was begun late this afternoon in a speech by Martin W. Littleton, his chief counsel, who argued that the jury had to consider only the state of mind of his client at the time he shot and killed his victim.

This followed the sudden closing of the prosecution in the famous case and was not begun until after Mr. Littleton had subjected the State's chief witness, J. Clinch Smith, brother-in-law of the dead man, to a rigid he foremost in the opinion of the pected of him when he got fairly started. White deliberately and maliciously, If

FIRST RACE-Purse $400; maiden and to judge this issue on the merits. wo-year-old fillies; three furlongs.- This, I believe, you will do. Counsel 8 to5 and 4 to 5, first by two lengths; nition of insanity was not for physi-

Insanity Undetermined Plea.

study it to the end of the world. at the express purpose of showing you that able of telling us what insanity is as

TRUST CONCERNS CLEARING HOUSE

Companies That Keep a 25 Per lapse. Cent. Surplus Gain Membership.

At a special meeting of the New it with you first. The time has passed harge of extortion was reversed last York Clearing House Association to- when people hid, with shame the fact tion admitting trust companies as mem- It is no story of a strong man who, bers was unanimously adopted. This under distress of sudden passion, takes admits all trust companies that keep a the life of another. It is a story I will 25 per cent, reserve to fulch membership tell you which may be humiliating, for the association. That portion of the proposed amend- ily's life. ment to the constitution which provided "But duty drives me to this disagreethat trust companies having 15 per cent. able task. Harry Thaw was born, some reserve in their vaults might be ad- thirty-odd years ago, of Sarah Coples lative development at Albany.

important legislation at Albany during "But the family of William Than affecting trust companies.

NAMED BY ROOSEVELT.

the sacrifice of a great deal of collateral through the sacrifice of a great deal of collateral through the sacrifice of a great deal of collateral through the sacrifice of a great deal of collateral through the sacrifice of a great deal of collateral the sacrifice of a great deal of collateral was Thomas, Maclay & Co. Mr. Mc-Burney said that the senior member of the firm at that time was not E. R. Thomas, but Herbert F. Thomas, He through the firm at that time was not E. R. Thomas, but Herbert F. Thomas, He through the firm at that time was not E. R. Thomas, but Herbert F. Thomas, He through the firm at that time was not E. R. Thomas, but Herbert F. Thomas, He through the firm at that time was not E. R. Thomas, but Herbert F. Thomas, He through the firm at that time was not E. R. Thomas, but Herbert F. Thomas, He through the firm at that time was not E. R. Thomas, but Herbert F. Thomas, he through the firm at that time was not E. R. Thomas, but Herbert F. Thomas, he through the firm at that time was not E. R. Thomas, but Herbert F. Thomas, he through the firm at that time was not E. R. Thomas, but Herbert F. Thomas, he through the firm at that time was not E. R. Thomas, but Herbert F. Thomas, but Herbert F. Thomas, he collector of Customs for the District of Genesee. N. Y. The nomination of Harrison C. O. Colby, at present captain in the navy, to be rear admiral on the retire of the firm at that time was not E. R. Thomas and the Thomas interests.

vite you to had any asposition on my -facts which throw a backward and a fendant-but all of them intended for "Science has sounded all our organs it is to tell us what some of the re- except the brain. But of the portals of holding in its hand the lighted lamp and peeping into the darkness, trying to discover the mysterious mainspring of human action. The brain alone remains an unsolved, untraced realm into which we have penetrated a little way. We cannot look upon the working of the brain as we can the workings of the lungs or the heart. We can nly judge of the brain by the action of its owner.

"Gentlemen, we are aproaching the discussion of a subject that should thrill us with a great interest. "We are to determine if it be possible for a man to take the law into his own hand in a moment of mental col-

"Gentlemen, I will tell you the whole story of the life of Harry Thaw. I will tell this story through his mother and his teachers and those close to him. wish I could let you hear that story from them without having to discuss it lays bare the secret places of a fammitted as associate members was laid Thaw and William Thaw. William over for three months to await legis- Thaw was a strong man; his mother It is expected that there will be some mortant legislation at Albany during the strong man, but subject to the mortant legislation at Albany during the strong man, but subject to the mortant legislation at Albany during the strong man, but subject to the mortant legislation at Albany during the strong man, but subject to the strong man are strong man, but subject to the strong man are strong man, but subject to the strong man are strong man, but subject to the strong man are strong man a he present session of the Legislature was subject to convergent hereditary insanity. On both sides of the family there was insanity. I will show you through records of various hospitals. "Three blood relatives of the father of